

What is a Discipleship Walk?

The Discipleship Walk is a three-day weekend (no hiking involved) designed to give believers an opportunity to take a break from regular routines and experience the love of God in a new and fresh way. It is the goal of the Discipleship Walk to lead each person into a closer relationship with Christ where they might become more intentional and mature in their faith, so that each can make a difference for Christ in his or her world.

The Discipleship Walk began in Indianapolis at Northview Christian Life Church in 1989. The Discipleship Walk is heavily patterned after the Walk to Emmaus, The Cursillo Movement, The Great Banquet, and other similar weekends across denominational lines. Since then many area churches in the Indianapolis area have joined them in participating in the walks. In fact, in the fall of 2002, the decision was made to split the groups in Indianapolis because there was so much interest in attending walks.

In 2003, The Chapel partnered with Northview and they have helped us to establish a group of people from The Chapel who have attended and worked the walks. The Chapel held its first set of Discipleship Walks in 2004. Since then we have held a set of walks annually, usually in January or February each year. Fall walks were added in 2009.

What happens on the weekend?

The weekend is highly structured and includes a series of talks, discussions, chapel times, prayer time, music, and lots of food, fun, and fellowship. It has been described as a “short course in discipleship” with the main focus on what it means to be a disciple of Jesus Christ. Many feel that this weekend experience has renewed and re-energized their walk with the Lord.

When can I go?

The weekends are scheduled from Thursday night (beginning at 5 pm with a send off dinner) through Sunday, returning to Fort Wayne mid-afternoon. We do ask that if you attend a walk, you are able to stay the entire weekend.
